

Commercial Spares

Premier worldwide supplier of aircraft spares.

From antennas to filtration systems, AmSafe® is the premier OEM supplier of aviation spares and supplies for commercial aircraft. Our top priority is to provide our customers with quality parts and superior service to ensure the safety of passengers and cargo in the air and on the ground. All materials provided by AmSafe conform to current EASA and FAA requirements.

We provide the following certification as part of our standard documentation:

- EASA Form One for European manufactured materials.
- FAA 8130-3 for USA manufactured materials.
- Manufacturers certificate of conformity for standard parts.

AmSafe is also AS9100 and ISO9001:2000 certified and are able to provide complete traceability of components to the original manufacturer.
